

1/2	Student Leader Denies Charge			Black Student Assn.
1	Larrone B. Williams, 21, of Rodney St., president of the University of Buffalo's Black Student Union, pleaded innocent to third-degree assault before City Court Judge Joseph J. Sedita Monday. He was released without bail pending a Feb. 8 trial.
1 1/2	Williams and a suspect still being sought, are accused of punching and kicking Peter R. Guidici of Suffrin, N.Y., another student, during an incident revolving around a locked door in the Cooke Hall lounge, Dec. 12.
2	Williams was charged last fall with attacking a campus security officer who asked to see Williams' driver's license, but Judge H. Buswell Roberts acquitted him of harassment and resisting arrest counts following a trial.
