Dear Alice
I have with a list - and you shared get a better & up-to-date view than some of your "intellectuals" - as my reading average is about 2 books a day. on various doctrines - However. I don't doubt but that the "Mystical" part of the things on the list. I think I suppose you could have them for the asking; but it is, I think good as they are technical; in other sense (I think even the in a new old-fashioned way), they are really of great interest & value.

These things of your & the ones else yesterday, if it didn't take a rod, a whip, & a good old whack me put as you to my paper. I should have written to advise you to take some of the powder cinnamon to the great fact of being with to (a half for small cup, keep the present conditions - to which I am putting no adjectives. mostly my extremities being slow dead & I hope it like the fair one. Having been a thunderbolt the bath pipe are surges the froze - but are now thawing - I hope quietly - but well & thank you, I've sung as a ~~thunderbolt~~ ^{thunderbolt} in a coss corner & His Five ^{shops} J. is as fine as mine & at present. Happy

J. & W. I suppose it is quite useless bleeding with fair to feed.
(I want say 'up,') & sit down serious to think what fair can say.
& then get it - really at any price - as in the long run - it "costs" a great deal more. not to - Itav about stewed veal ^{cooked} ^{with} an anion. & ^{Salt} ^{with} a squeeze of lemon - & stewed prunes. But I must attach you when I see you. & meanwhile beg you to keep warm inside & out. are wey or another. The basin will do any time as I've bought 2 new ones. to appear Dave. Love from E. Ann.
