Testimonials from the Quarterly of the Globe
Three Great Women

Miss Marie Corelli writes

"It suits me: I am sure it would have suited Shakespeare. In ^{many} respects we are so much alike.
I shall also leave my bed to some one, & then He & I have made beautiful strafford our home."

Ella Wheeler Wilcox writes

"Most of my Poems of these were written as it. I may say I owe my inspiration entirely to it.
It has enabled me to bring consolation to millions who have never had a bed ~~to lie in~~ to lie in & never will have one!"

Dr. Marie C. Slopes writes

"My former husband found it most ~~uncomfortable~~ uncomfortable: my present is beginning to complain of it, but personally I think it is ideal!"

Thousands of others. Inspection invited.

9, GORDON STREET,

GORDON SQUARE. W.C.

but sooner or later it is not likely that the whole side will be taken over by the Borough, when the question of compensation would come in?

However, if you ^{cannot} ~~cannot~~ see at my price, it had better stand over & I will consider the question of rebuilding or repair - & a lease or tenancy - I enclose herewith the Assignment. Deed Book etc up to 1752 Keeping back some old documents dating from 1655 which are curious & not I believe necessary to the Abstract of Title. If you should should eventually see he was in accepting my price it will save me trouble if you could put the matter through.

Yours truly
Charles May.
