

1/2	UB Student Freed in Campus Incident
1	The former president of the Black Students Union at the University of Buffalo was acquitted Tuesday in City Court of resisting arrest in an Oct. 30 incident at the Main St. campus.	UB, was charged after he allegedly refused to show identification during an encounter with campus police in Norton Union's Rathskeller.		Black Student (Mr.)
1 1/2	Judge Samuel L. Green found Larrone Williams, 22, of Rodney Ave., innocent of the charge following a nonjury trial.	Judge Green ruled that the arrest was unauthorized because Williams did nothing illegal before he was asked for his identification, and the defendant was therefore not guilty of resisting arrest.
