On February 1 and 2, 1983 in the Moot Court Room of the State University of New York at Buffalo, Faculty of Law and Jurisprudence, there will be a symposium addressing one of the most controversial subjects of our time. The symposium is entitled: The Struggle for Liberation in Southern Africa: Issues and Answers.

On February 1 Dr. Japhet Zwana of the State University of New York at Albany will deliver a powerful talk on the current socio/political climate in Southern Africa.

On February 2 there will be a panel discussion, which shall attempt to expose all sides of the issue. The panelists include:

Dr. Japhet Zwana -- Professor of African Studies, SUNY/Albany

Ms. Virginia Leary -- Professor of Law, SUNY/Buffalo School of Law

Dr. Andre Visser -- Representative of the South African Foundation

Mr. Gregory Frost -- Southern Africa Desk Officer, U.S. State Department

Mr. David Ndaba -- Representative of the African National Congress

Ms. Adrien Wing -- (Moderator) Law Associate with the firm of Curtis, Mallet-Prevost, Colt & Mosle, New York City

There will be a lengthy question and answer period.

Please come and encourage others to as well as we debate this explosive issue.
