SAM GREENLEE AND MAYA ANGELOU TO SPEAK AT U/B

BUFFALO, N.Y. -- Two contemporary Black writers will be appearing at the State University at Buffalo within the next three weeks.

Sam Greenlee, most famous for his novel, The Spook Who Sat by the Door, will speak on Wednesday, Sept. 29 at 4:00 p.m. in the Norton Union Fillmore Room, while Maya Angelou, most famous for her fictional compositions, I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings and Gather Together in My Name, will speak on Monday, October 4, at 8:00 p.m. in the Norton Union Conference Theatre.

No admission fee will be collected for Mr. Greenlee's lecture although a $1 fee will be charged for admission to showings of the film version of The Spook Who Sat by the Door at 7:00 and 9:00 p.m. in the same room. Admission to Ms. Angelou's talk will be $2.

Both presentations are sponsored by the U/B Black Student Union.
